

PROCLAMATION:

WHEREAS, the band “No Evidence of Disease”, or N.E.D., is composed of six gynecologic surgeons dedicated to the treatment of gynecological cancer, and;

WHEREAS, the goal of the band N.E.D. is to enhance knowledge about gynecologic cancer, to save lives, as well as to bring hope through music to those undergoing treatment, and to the world at large, and;

WHEREAS, roughly 80,000 cases of gynecological cancer are diagnosed each year nearly 30,000 of which result in fatality, and;

WHEREAS, treatment of gynecological cancer is most effective when detected early, and;

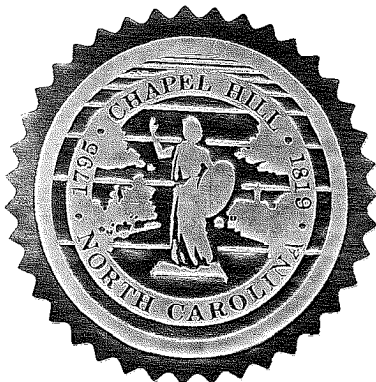

WHEREAS, 100% of N.E.D.’s proceeds go to educating women everywhere on gynecological cancer, to promote early detection of the disease, and to UNC Hospitals and Rex Cancer Center to create N.E.D. patient resources and support for women with gynecological cancer, and;

WHEREAS, the Town of Chapel Hill is committed to the health and welfare of its citizens and to the support of citizens dedicated to aiding those affected by disease, and;

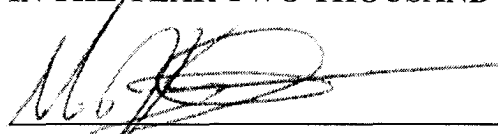

WHEREAS, N.E.D. will be performing at the Cat’s Cradle February 27th and at Lincoln Theatre February 28th in advancement of their mission, and;

WHEREAS, greater awareness of N.E.D’s concert will further the mission of N.E.D. and benefit the lives of women with gynecological cancer;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Kleinschmidt, Mayor of the Town of Chapel Hill, in recognition of NED’s generosity and service in the fight against gynecological cancer, proclaim that citizens, if they are able, attend N.E.D’s concert at either the Cat’s Cradle or the Lincoln Theatre in order to raise funds for N.E.D’s mission of healing and support or contribute on their own via the band’s website: www.nedtheband.com.
