In consideration of the fact that the Tax levied at the last meeting, owned not meet the necessary expences of the Town during the year the vote of the last meeting fixing the Rate at 12½ c. on the $100.

75. c on the Poll.

was reconsidered, and after some discussion it was agreed that ordered that the Rate be fixed at

50. c on the $100.
$1.50 on the Poll

On motion the Collectors Bond was fixed at ($500.) Five Hundred Dollars, with approved security.

On motion the Street Committee was instructed to request Mr Hathanice King to open at once a ditch leading from a certain culvert in the Eastern portion of the Town

On motion the Street Committee was instructed to notify at once, Mr Nash Cheek, to remove a certain Cotton Gin from Rosemary Street, it having been declared a nuisance by this Board.

On motion it was ordered that the Treasurer take immediate charge of the Tax Book and proceed at once to collect all Taxes due the Town for the year 1873. and that he be allowed (5) Five Per. cent for collection.

On motion, it having been determined that the duties of Town Clerk and Treasurer should be performed by the same person during the present year, the salary of such person was fixed
