A communication from D. McCauley, was presented, in regard to the erection, on the part of L.W. Cann, of a steam engine, on a lot adjoining his property and within seventy feet of his barn, thereby endangering his entire property, asking relief at the hands of the Board: After considerable discussion of the matter, the Board not feeling satisfied as to their jurisdiction in such cases - directed that the parties concerned be requested to submit the matter to a Board of Referees of their own choosing.

On Motion of Mr Mangum, the Clerk was directed to place in hands of the M.P. and Constable, each, a certain copy of the ordinances of Chapel Hill.

On motion Mr Mason the Board adjourned, subject to the call of the M.P.
