Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, God, in His infinite wisdom and goodness, has called out of the life our friend J. W. Gore, in the strength of his Splendid Manhood; and Whereas, in his untimely death this Board loses one of its brightest, most loyal and valuable Members, his Sorrowing friends, a friend ever gentlemanly, courteous, tender and considerate, the University a most valuable asset, and his ever faithful wife, an indulgent and loving companion and devoted husband;
Resolved: That we will ever Cherish a grateful remembrance of his noble virtues, his genial and courteous bearings and his true and loyal devotion to every interest that tended to promote the highest and best in life;

2. That while we deeply mourn that his life should close in the midst of so much usefulness and honor, we rejoice that he accomplished so much.

3. That we extend to his bereaved family our tenderest sympathies, and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of this Board, that a copy be sent to the stricken widow, and a copy be sent to the Chapel Hill News, with request that they be published.
