

NORTH CAROLINA
ORANGE COUNTY

Whereas, on April 10, 1924, a resolution was adopted by the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Chapel Hill relative to encroachments by the Bank of Chapel Hill Building on the sidewalk;

And whereas, after the preambles reciting the conditions under which the certain encroachments were made, a resolution was passed as follows:

"That no objection is made by the present Board of Aldermen to the completion of the repairs to the Bank of Chapel Hill Building as specified in the aforementioned sketch. Said specifications showing encroachments on the sidewalk of EIGHT INCHES (8") by a decorative moulding at the base of the building, EIGHT INCHES (8") by a decorative door pilaster, and EIGHT & ONE-HALF INCHES (8½") by a door step. PROVIDED, however, that the Bank of Chapel Hill shall execute an agreement to this effect in harmony with this ordinance, said agreement to be contained in this the proceedings of the meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Chapel Hill on April 10, 1924."

NOW, therefore, the Bank of Chapel Hill, recognizing the fact that the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Chapel Hill has no right to give permission to make the said encroachments, agrees to remove the said encroachments whenever requested to do so by the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Chapel Hill.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Bank of Chapel Hill has caused these presents to be signed in its name by the President and its common seal attached hereto and attested by its Secretary, all by order of its Board of Directors this the 15th Day of April, 1924.

BANK OF CHAPEL HILL

By M. C. Noble President

Attest:

Clyde Eubanks
Secretary

16 April 1924

There was a meeting of the Board of Aldermen of the Town of Chapel Hill at 1:30 P.M., Mayor Roberson presiding.

The Aldermen present were Messers. R.P. Andrews, G.M. Braune, D.D. Carroll and H.A. Whitfield.

Mayor Roberson presented to the Board of Aldermen all the known facts in regard to the part Chief of Police Featherston had taken in the attempt to take Carl Weigand to the State of Ohio to answer charges made against him there. Mr. Roberson stated that Mr. Featherston had been suspended from office indefinitely with pay to await further developments in the case. The Board of Aldermen went on record as approving the suspension of Mr. Featherston.

Mr. Loving, North Carolina representative of the J.B. McCrary Co., Engineers, of Atlanta, Ga., discussed with the Board the proposed sewer disposal plant. Mr. Loving stated that his company would make all necessary surveys, design and locate the plant for the sum of $300.00; that they would make up working drawings and furnish inspection service during the construction work for the sum of six percentum (6%) of the cost of the plant; and, in case the plant cost as much as $25,000.00, refund to the town one-half the $300.00 paid for surveys and preliminary plans; and, in case the plant cost as much as $40,000.00, refund to the town the entire $300.00 paid for surveys and preliminary plans. There was no action taken in regard to this matter, but arrangement was made to have a conference with the Business Manager of the University of North Carolina and to consider the proposal of Mr. Loving at this time.

The Board of Aldermen adjourned at 3 P.M.

W.S. Roberson, Mayor

B. M. Kline Clerk.