The Aldermen declined to make any change in the license and privilege tax for cafes this year, but agreed that the protest of Mr. Livas, owner of the Carolina Confectionery, would be considered when the Ordinance was passed on for next year.

- - - - -

The Manager was instructed to have the police exert every possible effort to see that gambling on miniature pool-tables in some of the business houses was stopped.

- - - - -

The Manager was requested to submit an estimate on the cost of replacing the wooden stakes with iron ones, and re-running part of the Town Boundary, and to submit this estimate at the next meeting of the Board.

- - - - -

There being no further business, the meeting of the Board of Aldermen was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Z. P. Council, Mayor,

By J. A. Osborne Clerk.
